

International Working Group
Annual Report
2011/2012

- Arts and Sciences Year of China: Much of the effort of the working group went into supporting the A & S Year in China activities. The group also drafted other people to help with the many programs that were presented. The people who assisted us who were not on the working group are listed below the activity.
 - September 12th – December 9th Chinese Calligraphy, examples of calligraphy and instruments in the Little Fine Arts Library. (Exhibit created by Meg Shaw, Art Librarian.)
 - September 21st: Participated in the kick-off activity by doing a display promoting the library's new website
 - October 17th – October 28th: The Monkey King, a display of puppets and children's literature, Little Fine Arts Library. (Exhibit created by Meg Shaw, Art Librarian.)
 - October 19th - Chinese Cultural exhibit dedication, the Hub, William T. Young Library. (
 - November 12th – 16th: UK- China Connection, a video display celebrating cooperative educational programs between UK Colleges and other Chinese universities (in celebration of International Education Week. (Assisted by Seth Riker from the Education Abroad Office.)
 - January 23rd – June 30th : Chinese New Year, an exhibition in the Atrium of Young Library with an accompanying website explaining the significance of each item in the display (<http://bit.ly/A82Wu3>). (Artifacts provided by the Confucius Center; silk banner image scanned by Crystal Heiss; poster by Abby Taylor, student intern from Tatescreek High School.)
 - February 1 – March 30th : Traveling Through China, a electronic display of 19th Century Chinese post cards from University of Kentucky Libraries Special Collections, the Hub, William T. Young Library. (Post card images scanned by Crystal Heiss.)
 - March 19th : The Sight and Sound of Chinese Musical Instruments, a exhibit of Chinese musical instruments, Little Fine Arts Library. (Assisted by Gail Kennedy.)
 - March 30th: Chinese Musical Instruments: Then and Now, a lecture and demonstration by Dr. K.H. Han beginning a 3:30, Niles Gallery, Little Library. (Organized by Gail Kennedy.)

- April 10th: Chinese Acupuncture, a lecture by Dr. Connie Jennings, UKAA Auditorium, William T. Young Library beginning at 3 p.m.