

International Working Group

Annual Report

2013/2014

The main focus for the International Working Group (IWG) for 2013/14 was supporting the A & S Passport Program, ¡Viva Mexico! The group began working in June of 2013, developed the program plan and budget. Once the budget was approved the group began dividing up the tasks. A list of activities and the person who was responsible for the project are listed below. As in past years, all committee members contributed to each activity and a number of people beyond the committee members contributed to make this another successful year.

- August: Exhibit: Young Atrium – Mexican map and banners with the state coats or arms – Toni Greider
- September 6th – March 13th: Exhibit: “A Glimpse of Ancient Mexico: Writings of the Aztecs, Mixtec, and Maya” an exhibit of facsimile Mexican codices from UK’s Special Collections. Descriptions by Dr. Chris Pool and Barry Kidder, U.K. Anthropology Department. (Virtual Exhibit in UKnowledge) Gordon Hogg/Adrian Ho/Toni Greider
- September 15th – October 7th: Book Exhibit: “Mexican Art”, Little Fine Arts Library—Meg Shaw
- October 15th – January 27th: Exhibit: “Indigenous Clothing of Mexico: Huipils” in the Young Library Atrium and the lobby of the Science Library (Virtual Exhibit in UKnowledge)—Kazuko Hioki/Adrian Ho
- October 22nd – November 28th: Display: “Aztec Medicine”, Lobby, Medical Center Library—Frank Davis
- November 8th: Program: “Taller Martín Pescador: A Private Press in Mexico” by Juan Pascoe, joint program with King Library Press – Paul Holbrook
- November 11th : Program: Showing of the Video of Blossoms of Fire with introduction and Q & A session by Dr. Francie Chassen-Lopéz – Toni Greider

Spring Semester

- February 3rd – February 28th: Exhibit: “Scenes from Mexico: An Exhibit of Postcards from UK Libraries Special Collections”, video walls, the Hub (Virtual Exhibit in UK Knowledge) Gordon Hogg/Adrian Ho/Toni Greider

- February 17th – May 4th: Exhibit: “Alebrijes of Oaxaca, Mexico”, Young Library Atrium. Exhibit assembled by Dr. Francie Chassen-Lopéz—Kazuko Hioki/Adrian Ho/Toni Greider
 - Presented an educational program on Alebrijes to 200 elementary students from surrounding schools on 3/26, 4/8 and 4/16. Joint Program with UK Hispanic Studies--Toni Greider
- March 24th; Exhibit: “Mexican Revolution” an exhibit of photos from the Mexican Revolution. Descriptions provided by Dr. Francie Chassen-Lopéz. Rose Street Entrance, Young Library (Virtual Exhibit in UKnowledge)—Toni Greider/Adrian Ho
- March 26th : Program: “Mexico on the Digital Frontier: Creating Access in Archives and Libraries”, Dr. Linda Arnold, Professor of History (Emeritus), Virginia Tech (program being edited for UKnowledge) – Toni Greider/Adrian Ho

Additional Activities:

- Produced 31 Libguides (electronic guides) on Mexico (one for each Mexican State) and guides on Mexican Food and Mexican business – Jennifer Richmond
- Produced a Libguide on the Mexicana Collection (Lou Emma Wilson Endowment) – Toni Greider
- Developed a Mexican Jeopardy Quiz for International Education Week and offered online -- IWG
- Hosted a workshop on Intercultural Communications for Library staff (joint program with the Staff Development Committee) -- IWG
- Developed and presented a poster for the Poster Session at the American Library Association Meeting, Las Vegas, NV – IWG, Adrian Ho, Presenter

International Working Group Members for 2012/2013:

Terri Brown
 Frank Davis
 Toni Greider, Chair
 Kazuko Hioki
 Adrian Ho
 Jennifer Richmond