UK Libraries Special Collections presents:

Making It Primary:
Integrating Special Collections into the Curriculum

Thursday, October 18, 2012
10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
William T. Young Library
UK Athletic Association Auditorium

Featuring: Peter Carini, Dartmouth College

Dartmouth College’s Rauner Special Collections Library regularly conducts over 90 class sessions per year working with faculty across the curriculum including classes in Anthropology, English, Film Studies, History, Physics, Public Health and Sociology. An experienced archivist and teacher, Peter will discuss Dartmouth College’s efforts to integrate Special Collections into the intellectual life of the campus and the value of primary source teaching in undergraduate education. Join us for this interactive session and explore ways to integrate primary sources into your classroom.
